

Dr. Mark H. Erickson

Dr. Mark Erickson's job as president of Northampton Community College has prepared him well for "Dancing with the Lehigh Valley Stars." He knows how to lead and he's used to being on his toes. He also has a secret. While studying American history as an undergraduate at Princeton, he took a modern dance class with the renowned choreographer and dancer, Ze'eva Cohen. Education is never wasted. When he busted a move to Pharrell Williams' "Happy Dance" in a fun-filled promotional video for Northampton, it scored 7000 views on YouTube. Let the competition beware!
