

Steph Wells

Stephanie Wells returns to the Lehigh Valley as one half of “Mike & Steph in the Morning on B104.” She previously hosted mid-days on B104 from 2000-2004. Her radio career started in New York as a mid-day show producer for Z100 in the late 90’s. Stephanie’s career has made stops in Reading, PA; Philadelphia; Fredericksburg, VA and Washington, DC. She’s done everything from Top 40 to Country to News and Traffic. She enjoys working with a number of charitable organizations including American Cancer Society, American Diabetes

Association, Autism Speaks, the United Way and Habitat for Humanity, among others. When she is not working, she spends time with her husband, Nick, and boys, Nicholas and Sam.
