

Will Lewis is an anchor / reporter for WFMZ-TV. Recently he worked in the Easton bureau focusing on a variety of topics in eastern Pennsylvania and western New Jersey.

Will moved to the Lehigh Valley seven years ago after working in Portland, Maine. Because of his love of traveling and various job assignments, he has driven across country seven times. Will has also lived in, visited, or driven through all 50 states.

Originally from Seattle, Washington, Will left the Pacific Northwest to attend the University of Tennessee, Knoxville. An avid sports fan, Will always keeps up with his local teams and of course the Tennessee Volunteers. While not at work, Will enjoys cooking and when he is not whipping up something fancy, like scallops with a saffron aioli, you will most likely see him around the Lehigh Valley trying dishes at the numerous restaurants. Will also enjoys traveling, and running on local trails around the area.
