

Arlene Levine is a retired teacher from the Phillipsburg School District where she had worked for 35 years. She has spent a lot of time coaching for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. Arlene has trained adults, including cancer survivors, to participate in various marathons across the country.

Arlene spends her days walking, attending classes at the gym, substitute teaching, traveling and enjoying life.

Arlene has three children, 2 grandsons and lives with her husband Ira in Lower Saucon.