

Anne Rampolla

Anne Rampolla is a graduate of Moravian College and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro. Anne has taught college level Spanish grammar and literature for over 30 years. Most of her teaching career was at Lehigh University, but she also taught at Moravian College, DeSales University, and several colleges in North and South Carolina. She was a recipient of distinguished teaching awards from Moravian College and DeSales University.

Anne's husband and son are two of four owners of Lost Tavern Brewing located in Hellertown, PA. The craft beer industry has been a new and exciting venture for Anne and her family. Anne has greatly enjoyed learning about and sampling the craft beers brewed at Lost Tavern. She also loves listening to the many talented musicians that perform at the Brewery.

It is also important to Anne to spend time volunteering within the community. She has just completed a two year term as Chair of the Board of Trustees for Historic Bethlehem Museums and Sites. During Anne's six-year board term with Historic Bethlehem, the organization has been working diligently to confirm their designation as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Currently, Anne is the Chair of the Board of the St. Luke's Visiting Nurse Association and is on the Chairman's Counsel for Historic Bethlehem Museums and Sites.

In her spare time, Anne enjoys Zumba classes, so she readily accepted the challenge to participate in Dancing with the Lehigh Valley Stars. Anne also loves to spend time with her family which includes her husband Ken, two married children, and three grandchildren. She is also an avid golfer and tennis player. Anne resides in Bethlehem with her husband.
